

Sociodrama Group

Lead by Angela Wiley

MA, LPC, LPCS, LCAS, CCS, NCC, MAC, BC-DMT, RDT/BCT, CTT5

Are YOU a Mental Health Professional?

NEED CE's? Want to learn new techniques to use with your work? Come CONNECT with mental health professionals in a FUN and informative way using drama therapy!

Experience

Drama Therapy
Sociodrama
Working as a Group
Role Play
Play Back
Role Reversal
Problem Solving
Empathy in action
Conflict Resolution

Join Us

Tuesday evenings
(1st Tuesday of each month)

6:30-8 PM

Greensboro Dance &
Drama Therapy
4112 Spring Garden
Suite B Greensboro, NC
27404

Come dressed to move!

Format will be experiential!

Apply

Drama Therapy
techniques to various professional settings

Learn through Action

This Sociodrama group will use several approaches to working with individuals' shared experiences through problem-solving, developing deeper understanding, making decisions and learning new roles. Sociodrama also provides an action forum for resolving conflicts among people with different views. Sociodrama is effective in clarifying values, developing social skills, solving problems, diagnosing and repairing struggles, developing and rehearsing action plans and improving personal effectiveness and awareness.

$20

To attend each group

To Register Contact

Angela Wiley (336) 698-6723

Angela@dance-drama-therapy.com

<https://www.dance-drama-therapy.org/training-education-workshops/groups/>

Group is targeted to Licensed
Mental Health Professionals
(LPC, LCAS, LCSW, LMFT)

Angela Wiley-Greensboro Dance and Drama Therapy has been approved by NBCC as an Approved Continuing Education Provider; ACEP no. 6714. Programs that do not qualify for NBCC credit are clearly identified. Angela Wiley-Greensboro Dance and Drama Therapy is solely responsible for all aspects of the programs. You can contact Angela Wiley at 5603 B West Friendly Ave #103 Greensboro, NC 27410, (336) 698-6723, angela@dance-drama-therapy.com, www.dance-drama-therapy.com.

